Sabrin Abdu

Water Resources Engineering Student | Web Development

Email: abdusabrin441@gmail.com | GitHub: github.com/saburi46 | LinkedIn: Sabrin Abdu

Professional Profile

Fourth-year Water Resources Engineering student at Adama Science and Technology University, with practical learning experience in full-stack web development, collaborative software projects, and programming. Interested in opportunities that combine engineering problem-solving with technology. Recognized as part of a team that placed third in the ASTU MSJ Summer Bootcamp 2026.

Education

Adama Science and Technology University (ASTU)

B.Sc. studies in Water Resources Engineering | Expected graduation: 2028 G.C.

Experience

Brolf Tech — Remote Internship Challenge 2026
Current participant | Ongoing

Participating in a remote technology internship challenge and collaborating with a teammate on a software project. Developing practical experience through project planning, implementation, and use of web development tools.

Projects & Achievements

Bootcamp Management System — Team Rihla Ventures
ASTU MSJ Summer Bootcamp 2026 | Third-place team achievement

Collaborated on a team project to build a Bootcamp Management System. The project involved a web application workflow and technologies including React, Express, MongoDB, HTML, and CSS.

- Achievement: Team Rihla Ventures placed third in the ASTU MSJ Summer Bootcamp 2026.

Technical Skills

Web Development	HTML, CSS, JavaScript, React, Node.js, Express, MongoDB
Programming	Python, C++, Data Structures and Algorithms
Tools	Git, GitHub, AutoCAD, Microsoft Word, Microsoft PowerPoint

Skill levels are listed as intermediate based on the information provided. Please review the descriptions before using this CV for applications.